CAUGHT On the Fly.

The office of Attorney Horace E. Hand in the commonwealth building is an interesting place for an antiquarian to visit. Though Mr. Hand is one of the most active and busy men in the city, he has a penchant for gathering old and quaint documents, papers, money, etc., a valuable collection of which adorn the walls of his office. One document that Mr. Hand prizes highly is a deed making a conveyance of land from Caleb Cook to Augustus Cook in New Haven county, Conn., in 1794. Caleb Cook was Mrs. Hand's great, great grandfather and Augustus Cook her great grandfather.

In his collection of old money Mr. Hand has continental bills of the denominations of $20, $50 and $100. They all bear date of 1775. A bill that purports to be worth 3 pence is dated 1777, and a 7-pence bill bears date of 1794. He has also an extensive collection of the state bank bills that caused so much trouble and confusion in the business world years ago. Some of these bills bear date of 1808. They were issued by the bank at Morris, corporation of Fredericksburg. A $5 bill of the Towanda bank has the date worn off, and there is a $3 bill of the Exchange bank, state of New York dated 1817. Other bills are Northampton bank, dated 1818; $5, 1811; Gloucester bank, 1808; Harrisburg bank, $10, 1839. There is one $2 note in the collection from the Bank of New Brunswick. The date is worn off, but it is endorsed by George Fuller, father of G. A. I. F. and Frederick Fuller, of this city. A $1 note from the Manufacturers' bank at Lowell, 1831, has along the face "directors responsible." Another note is from the Ontario Bank of Utica and its face value is $1.50.

Rev. E. L. Miller, pastor of the Holy Trinity Lutheran church, is a very versatile gentleman as well as an able clergyman. A short time ago a young man and woman, both of whom were deaf mutes, presented themselves before Rev. Mr. Miller and made known that they wished to be married. Any ordinary clergyman would be in a dilemma as to how to perform the ceremony, but Mr. Miller was not. He is an expert in the sign language and in a few minutes the young people were made one. They made their responses to the clergyman by means of signs.

AGAINST DIVISION OF THE LAND.

Master and Examiner Browning thinks it is not advisable. Master and Examiner J. W. Brown yesterday filed his report in the equity case of Ira O. Stephens against Jesse Franklin.

Mr. Stephens owns a one-third interest in the estate of the late Oscar Franklin, which consists of a piece of land in North Abington township, valued at $150.

Mr. Stephens wants the land divided so that he may come into possession of the portion that belongs to him. The master does not think it advisable to sell the land, and recommends that if those interested in it do not want to purchase it for $150 that it be sold by order of the court and the proceeds divided. The report was confirmed nisi.

The petition recites that Oliver has been insane for more than a year, and that it is dangerous to the community to have him at large. He is 39 years of age, and unmarried.

A Democratic caucus was held in the Fourteenth ward yesterday afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock. The candidates for select council were P. M. McCann, the present incumbent, and Thomas Cosgrove, for common council, P. J. Nealla.

BAIRD AGAINST CURTIS

Former Says He Was the Victim of a Malicious Prosecution.

ASKS SUBSTANTIAL DAMAGES

Wants Walter B. Curtis to Pay Him $25,000 for the Indignity He Suffered in Being Cast Into Jail—History of the Case—Three Sheriff's Interpleader Cases Tried—Verdicts That Were Returned Yesterday.

M. M. Baird, the well known shoe salesman, is plaintiff in an action for $25,000 damages from Walter B. Curtis, of Boston, called for trial before Judge Gunster in court room No. 1 yesterday afternoon. The damages are asked for unwarranted and malicious prosecution, with the resultant imprisonment, which Mr. Curtis instituted against Mr. Baird. Attorneys E. L. Shurtliff and C. E. Hill are representing the plaintiff's side of the case and Attorneys W. W. Watson and W. S. Diehl the defendant's.

It is alleged on behalf of the plaintiff that in 1888 Mr. Baird opened a shoe store on Wyoming avenue, this city, and purchased the greater portion of his stock from Curtis & Co., of Boston, of which the defendant is a member. The goods were obtained on an arrangement by which Mr. Baird was to pay the Boston firm with the money he derived from the sale of the stock. Business not proving successful Mr. Baird suggested to Curtis & Co. that the arrangement between them had better terminate, as the results were not satisfactory.

TOLD HIM TO KEEP ON. Walter B. Curtis told Mr. Baird not to be discouraged as it is always difficult and expensive to start a new business. The arrangement was continued until Aug. 10, 1889, but as business had not, up to that time, improved it was decided by Mr. Baird and Mr. Curtis to suspend business.

On Aug. 12 of Mr. Baird, Mr. Curtis and their attorneys, at which it was decided that Mr. Baird should assign to Curtis & Co. his stock, book accounts, securities, etc., and give a thirty day judgment note for $300.

In consideration of the transfer Mr. Curtis agreed to sign a paper releasing Mr. Baird from the payment of $2,600 that he owed Curtis & Co. The papers were duly signed, possession of the stock, books, etc., given to Mr. Curtis and Mr. Baird's attorney left for New York on business.

Mr. Curtis, evidently not satisfied with affairs, swore out a warrant before Alderman Wright of the Ninth ward, charging Mr. Baird with obtaining, by false representations, release from the payment of a debt of $2,600.

BAIRD HAD TO GO TO JAIL.

Mr. Baird was arrested and, being without legal advice or a bondsman, was committed to the county jail in default of $500 bail. He remained in jail thirty-six hours, until his attorney, who had been summoned to return from New York, secured his release by obtaining an order from one of the judges of the court. For the indignities he suffered in being thrown into prison, for the assault offered to his person, and the expense he incurred, Mr. Baird was to be reimbursed.

His side of the case, as presented above, was related to the jury by Attorney Shurtliff. Alderman O. B. Wright was sworn and said he issued the warrant for Mr. Baird's arrest, and subsequently committed him to jail.

The information the warrant was issued on was given to by Walter B. Curtis. Mr. Baird was next sworn and told of his relations with Curtis & Co. It is substantially as given above.

Mr. Baird was on the stand when court adjourned for the day. In the case of Michael McLanahan against Jermyn & Co., a verdict of $300 was returned by the jury yesterday, against that of Patrick McLanahan against the same firm a verdict of $119 was given for Mr. McLanahan.

TRYING INTERPLEADER CASES.

Before Judge Gunster yesterday morning the sheriff's interpleader case of John Eldred, of Binghamton, against Duke & Co. was tried. Mr. Eldred claimed the effects of H. D. Swartz, of Dalton, to be sold and purchased the goods at the sale to secure the judgment he held. He did not remove them from the premises and they were levied on by Duke & Co. as chattels of Swartz.

The jury said the goods belonged to Mr. Eldred. Attorneys Edward Miles and Richard H. Rogers were counsel for the plaintiff and Attorney C. H. Welles for the defendant.

Another interpleader case, that of Mrs. Sarah Bradley against Crandall & Co., of New York, was immediately called for trial.

Some time ago the household effects of the Bradleys were sold to satisfy a judgment held by Kerr & Siebecker against the husband, H. Bradley, a furniture dealer. Mrs. Bradley says that she purchased the furniture from Kerr & Siebecker after the sale. On May 29, 1893, it was levied on at the instance of Crandall & Co. as the property of H. Bradley. Mrs. Bradley served notice on the sheriff that it was her property and the latter asked the court to decide. The defendants contended that the transfer of the property was a scheme to defraud Mr. Bradley's creditors. A verdict had not been agreed upon when court adjourned.

BEFORE JUDGE EDWARDS.

In court room No. 2, before Judge Edwards, the greater part of the day was consumed with the trial of the interpleader case of W. M. Ford against John W. Masner & Son, oil and varnish dealers, of New York.

The defendants levied on the stock in a paper store on Penn avenue as the property of Miss Mary Ford. The plaintiff claims that the stock is owned by him. Attorneys John F. Scragg and S. E. Price appear for Mr. Ford and Attorney E. C. Newcomb for the defendants. The case was being argued when court adjourned.

AFTER SWEARING OFF.

How many have taken vows of abstinence with the birth of the new year is perhaps hard to estimate, but we know that such efforts are futile against an inveterate habit, a habit which has become a disease. There was a time when it would have been easy to quit, but having neglected to do so the habit continued until by the constant or frequent use of the poison there was forced a change in the nervous system which made it not only possible to drink but also to become drunk, but you also found it necessary, to keep you feeling good and you "swayed longer" because you had become diseased. Now that swearing off does no good and the pledge can't be kept, go and make your resolution good for all time by taking treatment at the Keefer Institute, 726 Madison avenue, Brantford, Pa.

One dozen of Griffin's Foryette photos will make twelve Christmas presents. What can you present your friends that will be more acceptable?

STOP STREET BEGGING

Associated Charities Board Will Attempt to Prevent This Practice.

MANY MATTERS UNDER DISCUSSION

Colonel Ripple Suggested That Two Police Officers Be Placed on Special Duty to Arrest All Beggars, but No Action Was Taken—Encouraging Reports from Different Charitable Organizations of the City.

There were present at the meeting of the Associated Charities last evening Colonel E. H. Ripple, T. J. Kelly, E. J. Moore, Daniel K. Kist, P. J. Ruane, E. J. Lyne, and W. G. Davis. Colonel Ripple presided, and in the absence of Rev. Rogers Israel, E. J. Lyne acted as secretary.

T. J. Kelly reported that the city conference of the St. Vincent de Paul society had contributed $100 to the South Side $100 to the Pinebrook and $100 to the Bellevue societies for use. They had also distributed twenty-six pairs of shoes. On the motion of W. G. Davis, a vote of thanks was tendered to George E. Davis, of Wondeland, for the benefit performance given there last week for P. J. Ruane, reported that the Christian Doctrine association of the North End was doing good work in that portion of the city.

T. J. Kelly brought up the matter of the begging on the streets and stated that it was still going on. Colonel Ripple suggested that two police officers be placed on duty on the avenue, where this begging is done, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 5 p. m., until it was effectually stopped. No action was taken on the suggestion although it met with general approval.

CHILDREN WHO BEG.

The report of Treasurer W. T. Smith showed that there was $125 in the treasury. Mrs. Duggan made her report in which she stated that she had found thirty-eight worthy cases during the past week and twelve that were unworthy. She wanted to know what was to be done with the families of the children who were stopped begging by the police. They came to her and claimed that they would starve if their money was taken away from their children. They were allowed to be taken to the board thought that when these children were arrested the cases would be referred by Mayor Connell to Mrs. Duggan for investigation.

The proposal entertainment at the Academy of Music the latter end of the month was discussed by the poor fund was discussed. All thought that it would be a good thing.

OFFICERS OF DIME BANK.

They Were Elected at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Dime Deposit and Discount bank was held at the banking rooms yesterday. Charles DuPont Brock was chosen president and E. J. Lynett secretary.

President Lynett addressed the stockholders upon the business of the bank for the past year, stating among many other interesting things that the surplus and undivided profits had increased more than $10,000. He also announced that a dividend of 1 per cent had been declared, payable Jan. 15, and that the board of directors had management to declare a like dividend every three months hereafter.

The following were elected directors: Charles DuPont Brock, R. G. Brooks, James P. Dickson, A. L. Francois, E. J. Lynett, Solomon Goldsmith, John A. Moore, T. P. Hoban, W. J. Lewis, M. H. Dale, J. W. Pack, George B. Jermyn and David Sprink.

At the directors' meeting which followed, Charles DuPont Brock was elected president, Reese G. Brooks vice president and E. J. Lynett secretary.

LELAND T. POWERS' LECTURE.

The Favorite Speaker Will Be at the Y. M. C. A. Friday Evening.

Leland T. Powers, who appears in the Young Men's Christian association hall on Friday evening, is the original impersonator of all the characters in the various parts which he has adapted to the platform and through which he has obtained a national reputation.

Dr. Crummins, of Chicago, himself a great orator, writes of Mr. Powers: "He is a born interpreter of the great human soul as revealed itself to Dickens, Hugo and Shakespeare. I have never seen such a continuous manifestation of power, nor have I been led through so many experiences in the same way, and with so much steadiness and sympathy as on the memorable evening when he gave us 'David Copperfield.'"

LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN.

Oscar Wilde's Famous Play to Be at the Academy Next Week.

After a run of 300 nights in New York and a long engagement in Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia, Scranton theater goers are to get an opportunity to see Oscar Wilde's famous comedy, "Lady Windermere's Fan," at the Academy on next Monday night.

It will be presented by Charles Frohman's company. Society will be sure to go to the Academy to hear the dreadful things that Oscar Wilde has put into the mouths of the characters, and the middle classes will go to see society satirized and everyone will laugh. Everyone will remember a paradox here and an epigram there, and no conversation in the boudoir, the drawing room or the club room is just now complete without them. "Lady Windermere's Fan" is the most quoted play of the period.

ESTIMATES ASKED FOR

City Controller at Work On Annual Appropriation Ordinance.

HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS WORKING

Given Until Saturday—Some Changes from Last Year—Ten Additional Patrolmen Needed—Many Improvements in the Fire Department Service—More Money Needed for Cleaning and Repairing Asphalt.

Instructions have been sent out to the various heads of departments connected with the municipal government to send to the controller, not later than Saturday, a statement of the expenses incident to the maintenance of their respective departments during the next fiscal year which begins on the first Monday in April.

Many of the departmental heads have complied with the instructions, but some few have not as yet turned in their estimate. It is expected, however, that all will have complied by Saturday and it is very probable that a meeting of the estimate committees of both councils will be called early next week.

The joint estimates committees consist of five members of each branch of council, and is as follows: From select council, C. W. Westphal, George Sanderson, F. H. Clemens, O. P. Miller, Victor H. Laner. From common council, T. E. Davies, Robert Robinson, William H. McDonald, George J. Duggan, and S. W. Roberts. The latter gentleman being no longer connected with council, it will be incumbent on President Moir to name some commoner to take his place on the committee.

APPROPRIATIONS SLIGHTLY INCREASED.

The appropriations at present in the hands of Controller Widmayer show a slight increase in the running expenses of the various departments which in some instances, is warranted. Those heads of departments who have not sent in their estimates are the street commissioner, the chief engineer and the board of health.

In the controller's department no increase is asked for; the appropriation is the same as last year, namely, $2,450. In the mayor's department an increase of $700 will be asked to be expended for detective hire. The appropriation asked for this department is $4,650. In the city assessors office the same amount will be required that was needed for the present year, namely, $7,410.

In the city clerk's office the only increase asked for will be $200, an additional item for printing and stationery. The salaries of the janitor and fireman, amounting to $1,449 per annum, will be charged to this appropriation, and the sum total will be about $9,450 to $9,500 for 1893.

In the police department an increase of $150 will be asked for books, stationery and printing, while the city solicitor will ask for $200 additional for his assistant, thus making the latter's salary $1,000 and the total appropriation $3,300.

OTHER INCREASES NEEDED.

In the street, police, fire and engineering departments increases will be suggested and asked. Street Commissioner Kist informed a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that $3,000 additional would be required for cleaning asphalt and $1,800 additional will be asked for repairs of asphalt, and the total appropriation will be almost $20,000.

In the police department Chief Simpson will ask for ten additional patrolmen and for a small appropriation for printing the new manuals intended for the regulation of the department. This will increase the appropriation for this department about $8,000 and will make the total about $50,000.

The fire department appropriation last year was $37,470. This year Chief Ferber will ask for $42,000. The improvements in the steam engines, the fire engine, $500; two extra wagons, one for Crystals and one for the Hooks, the cost being $250; purchase of the New York engine owned by the Citizens' Fire association, $3,000; chemical engine, $2,000; horse for Phoenix, $300; double drop harness for same, $300; $125; permanent engine for chemical engine, $750; keep of extra horse, $132; six fire alarm boxes, $750; maintenance of the same, $166 68; ten men to bunk in the houses, $1 a month each, $1,200; permanent engineer for Crystal steamer, $720; extension ladders, twin couplings, nozzles and a life saving net for hook and ladder truck, $900; permanent man known as a "rover" to act as a substitute, $600; Neptune engine exchanged for a new one, $3,300; double drop harness for Franklin, $125; single drop harness for General Pinner, $75; barn for Excelsiors, $500; two horses, $2,400; keeping the same, $1,584; veterinary surgeon and medicine for horses, $150.

IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS.

The city engineer will suggest that $400 be appropriated for the purchase of new instruments. At present the city has no claim on those that are in use. In case councils will require a survey of the city, he suggests engaging an additional engineer and two chainmen. The salaries in this department aggregate $9,069 against $9,120 last year. There are, however, more men employed now than there were last year, two corps being continually doing outside work.

The board of health has not yet sent in its estimate. Secretary Briggs was waiting for the meeting to be held Friday before action is taken. Last year $2,000 was appropriated for the running expenses of the crematory, but this sum has been found inadequate. The salaries alone aggregate $1,980 per annum, while the coal bill for the year is nearly $400.

There will not be many new improvements. Mr. Westphal's culvert, in the Nineteenth ward, and Mr. Ross' and Mr. Golden's in the First, being the only ones mentioned. The cost of both will be about $7,000. The improvements last year aggregated $42,400.

All of the requests made by the various departments will be submitted to the estimates committee, and as a rule the action of that committee is final.

Leland T. Powers in the Y. M. C. A. Standard Course.

The third number of the Young Men's Christian association course occurs Friday evening, Jan. 12. Leland T. Powers will give "David Copperfield" as only he can do it. Single admission 75 cents.
